Details: The Musicbox CD is a trip into the Life and Times of H.R.H. Lord Buckley before his 1955 performance at the musicbox theater, Hollywood California. Like clockwork inside a musicbox hear Lord Buckley rap at home in his kitchen hanging out with his friends and family. It starts with Asher the Dasher aka the Raven a Hollywood DJ saying: "I don't know where Lord Richard Buckley disappeared to this morning." But the truth is he was with his Lordship all night till the early bright drinking coffee and smoking Pall Malls with turkish tobacco in the kitchen at the crackerbox palace. Lyle the Wild and his swedish masseuse ask, "Do the Nazz." Then Lord Buckley blows the best most relaxed version I have ever heard. He doesn't stop there he blows most of his routine. thank you CPR
