Exciting creative jazz with a touch of drum'n'bass, funk, and free improv. Original compositions by Chris Stover. 11 MP3 Songs JAZZ: World Fusion, JAZZ: Free Jazz Details: Chris Stover is one of the most sought-after performers and recording artists in the Pacific Northwest. A trombonist and composer in a wide spectrum of styles (including jazz, Cuban and Brazilian music, modern chamber music, and free improvisation), he appears on over thirty recordings and has performed around the world. MORE ZERO is Chris's latest project, an exciting mix of modern jazz, drum-n-bass, and funk all within the framework of Chris's unique compositional style. Favorably compared to Dave Holland's band and John Hollenbeck's Claudia Quartet, MORE ZERO features an eclectic mix of some truly world class improvising musicians: Stuart MacDonald on saxophone, Ben Thomas on vibes, John Silverman on bass, and Chris Stromquist on drums. The band has generated quite a buzz in Seattle and is starting to branch out: look for a European tour in early 2007! Chris also performs with Frieze of Life, Quasinada, Sonando, and his own groups the Chris Stover Quartet and Acquired Involuntary Narcissism. More information at morezero.com.
