Ambient glitch IDM 10 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: IDM, ELECTRONIC: Glitch Details: off the sky, jason corder, began creating music in his mothers womb by banging on the uterus wall and plucking his umbilical cord to cope with the isolation. he was freed in 1977 sometime and upgraded his kit to a sterling pots-n-pans set. many years later during the advent of the 386 wonder pc, jason traded in his pots and pans at 14 and began exploring the void of 1's and 0's tracker software. after a couple years of experimentation, he decided to explore the social void of art college, thus retiring his tracker ways... for a bit... in 1998 he started raving and making dub techno via the weird hybrid tracker freak buzz. after realizing how utterly impossible and ridiculous it is to 'program' music, he decided to wise up and start using convention software. today jason writes humble songs with his guitar, pc and sometimes works with other musicians. Released on : Still, Databloem and Thinner
