Shennen Harris is the youngest of three children born march of 76' Bronx NY, to Beverly and Herb Christopher. Though the Bronx was the place of his birth, Shennen was raised in a variety of different places ultimately adding to his versatile character and diverse talents. Shennen graduated high school in Columbia S.C. (Cakalacka). As a young child Shennen began to develop his vocal skills like most artists of the day, but only after a near fatal vehicle accident. His recuperation from his injuries required confinement to home and bed. This would drive most adults.. crazy not to mention a child, his mother and father borderline insane. Being confined as he was, Shennen found interest in his parents music collections. He began listening to them regularly and mimicking his favorite artists to amuse his family. Artists that to this very day remain his favorites. Unknowingly to Shennen or anyone else at the time he had begun to develop his voice for singing. At the age of 7 his parents purchased him his first keyboard. For fun Shennen began arranging bars of music to acquire different feels and sounds. Occasionally taking lyrics from one song and applying them to another to amuse his family and neighbors. Eventually this too began to bore Shennen and he began to utilize his new found skills to compose and write his own songs. By the time Shennen reached high school he had developed an exceptional singing voice, and found pleasure in performing in his school's chorus. It was there that Shennen then joined a male a cappella (Doo Whopp) group and began singing in the hallways, malls and street corners of the southeast. They toured the southeast for exposure in hopes to find stardom. It was then he decided to make music his career goal after writing and producing his first song entitled "STRIKE 3". A ballad about a man letting go of an unfaithful love. Not long after his Highschool graduation Shennen relocated to Atlanta, GA in pursuit of a recording contract. After many ups and downs in a tough industry, Shennen managed to find his way to several releases from Independent labels. Including a single release and one where he was placed with an all male vocal/dance group which re-recorded the classic Force MDs hit "Tender Love". The song was placed on a compilation album that did sell well over 10,000 units due to their single. Before then Shennen's solo single "A Righteous Lady" released by an Independent label in the southeast region of the US, sold well over another 10,000 units or more and made him a local celebrity in places such as Alabama, South Carolina and Parts of Georgia and Florida. Shennen had the privilege to open for a number of established acts such as: Freddie Jackson, Total, B Angie B, and Jade just to name a few. Since then he has opened for current artists like Avante and several others. In 2001 Al McKay, founding member of the Classic Earth Wind Fire was shopping for songs to record for a new album of their remade classics. Shennen's song "Happen" written and co-produced by Shennen was recorded by the band and released overseas. The song highlighted the album's release and found a portion of its market in Japan where it received good reviews. To Shennen this was considered one of the highest points in his career because of his love for the Band EW&F (the ELEMENTS). Presently Shennen is touring and working on other up and coming projects, and also shopping for a major distribution deal with a budget that can reach the larger fan and consumer market. He has also on occasion performed with the Band TRIPLE DOSE, whose members are comprised of the former band members of the original Jackson 5. Continuing to bring his music of love's trials to his fan base in the only way he knows how, WITH ALL HIS HEART!
