Straight out of Irvington/East Orange New Jersey. The RAT PAC is here and ready to give it to you raw with their new album "Self Titled Debut" only on 808/Streetheat Records. 17 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: East Coast, HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap Details: The Rat Pac is more than just rappers, they're two 22 year old seasoned song writers from Irvington East Orange New Jersey (they call it "Pacistan"). As solo artists, they've been writing and recording for a long time until they crossed they crossed paths in high school and were the center pieces of a 4 man group. The group never lasted longer than a demo but Abwon Nikkels (the Rat Pac)kept making music together. The Pac was featured on a few mix tapes, the "Dream Team" being one of them. They also made a few guest appearances and managed to put together a hot mix tape entitled "The Invasion" hosted by East Orange native DJK.(the Rat Pac had a 3rd member but he decided not to remain in the group).Abwon Nikkels decided to put together their own recording studio so they could constantly be creative develop their unorthodox style without creating a cliched image. With the production skills of Utah's own "Konsickwence" and Pacistan's own"Nkz", the Rat Pac decided to record their first full album entitled "Self Titled Debut" aka "S.T.D." and decided to release it through 808/streetheat records. The guest appearances were kept to a minimum but the Rat Pac CD is jam packed with upbeat tracks like "Overdose" and ghetto tracks like "Shank That Fool!". Throw in an extensive diss track, an authentic freestyle and a handful of very creative concepts, you've got "S.T.D.", a CD worth listening too!
