Indie Pop 13 MP3 Songs POP: British Pop, POP: Beatles-pop Details: The Western Investor is Heidi Ernest, Drew Pirie, Rob Walter and Gareth Eaves. They are four old friends who get together once a month or so to catch up, make noise, drink beer and write songs. And every three years or so those songs add up to a record, their most recent effort being "This Beautiful Town". In the old days the foursome played around town quite a lot in various incarnations including Feisty and The Mean Reds. They're older now and a bit lazier and they make the odd mistake but they don't care so much because there are just more important things to worry about. And you can tell that they appreciate more than ever that playing in a band really is the best thing ever. Soundwise they rip off their favourite bands in the most honest and respectful way possible, and they end up playing quiet melodic pop that's sometimes cynical, sometimes humorous, and sometimes quite sad really. And they're really fucking good, so come on out and invest in the west.
