Andie Cochran thought she had at last escaped the clutches of her ruthless, power-mad ex-husband but then he abducted the child she loved more than life itself. And now, alone in a foreign country, she had no one to turn to but another very dangerous man who awakened passions she had thought long dead. Jeff Markum had come to this place in search of revenge, not caring that death could easily be the price he had to pay. But now, against his will, a woman was making him care about something more than vengeance a woman who had once belonged to the very man he meant to destroy.
