Imagine how quickly the world would do away with violence if every time one person were hurt, everyone felt it. Aponi Otto has been brutally raped and beaten. As she lingers in a coma, the women in her clan use the family "gift"-a mix of abilities to see and her thoughts, feel pain and pleasure, and heal others-to seek the identity of the rapist. However, the family, led by the matriarch, Goddess, and Aponi's rebellious sister, Bonita, find their efforts hindered by the victim herself. Bonita Niehouse moves back into her family's home with her daughter to assist her grandmother. What Goddess does not know, is that Bonita plans to use the family gift to reveal the attacker on her own so that she can receive redemption for running away from her child to the porn industry. Over a three-day period in the heat of the summer of 2004, Bonita struggles with broken visions of her sister's attack and conflicts with her grandmother and daughter. As she learns that an affair may have led to Aponi's attack, Bonita faces the challenge of cultivating her gift before Aponi heals and loses the details of the rape. Author: Levine, M.B.
