For 100s of unique & interesting titles, please type: * Manuel Ortiz Braschi * in the Tradebit Search Box above. How To Make Money On Demand! This e-book was written to help people build a list of prospects in their chosen niche. There are many Internet Marketers who set about list-building too late in their career. They spend fortunes on Pay Per Click advertising, driving prospects to sales pages, without a reliable means of capturing any contact details. Then, months down the line, they begin to wonder why someone who started in Internet Marketing after them, is now earning more than them, even though they don't work as hard. The Reason is List-Building. When you have a list of potential buyers in your chosen market, sending a single email which takes you ten minutes to write, can result in many thousands of dollars to your bottom line. Hence the slogan Cash on Demand. I used to work in corporate magazine publishing. We had many thousands of subscribers to our magazines and I appreciated the value to the business of having this list of customers. They were our mainstay, the regular customers, they were the ones who were hungry for more. In short, this list was the most valuable asset the company had. The same is true with my online business now. My list is my most valuable asset. I could lose all my websites and rebuild them again in days. But lose my list and I'd be back to square one. Whatever you do online you need to be building a list. If you're selling on ebay, you need to build a list, if you're doing adsense, build a list, if you're affiliate marketing BUILD A LIST. Never underestimate the power, the importance nor the value to your business of accumulating a quality list of prospects in your chosen niche. It is the list that makes working online so easy and so profitable. If you've already started list-building, then this book will give you some useful ideas for maximizing your activity for growth. If you've yet to get started, this book will give you some useful ideas for how to begin.
