Musical storytelling from the heart of the peace jungle 9 MP3 Songs FOLK: Jazzy folk, EASY

LISTENING: Ballads Details: I sing ballads, usually to the accompaniment of an acoustic guitar. I have been described as a griot, a troubadour and a balladeer. Ive also been told that everything I sing is a lullaby. When pressed to classify my own music, I describe myself as a musical storyteller, because I sing songs that tell stories and tell stories that include songs. About half of the songs that I sing are original and about half are songs, written by other people, -- from popular, folk, jazz, classical and other traditions -- that I choose to learn and sing because they speak to me. Listeners often complement my arrangements of memorable songs, even though I dont consciously do arrangements. I simply play what I hear in a song. It used to surprise me when listeners commented that they liked what I had done with a particular song, and that it took a while before they recognized the song I was singing. I finally began to understand what was happening, when I read, not too long ago, that Billie Holliday, whose interpretations were an art form in and of themselves, didnt do arrangements either. If you find a tune and it has something to do with you you just feel it, she wrote in Lady Sings the Blues. And when you sing it, other people can feel something too. People who are interested in Desree Jon Lucien Nat King Cole should consider this download.
