Rare early 80's pre-industrial avant psychedelic, darkly humorous, essential underground, prophetically ahead of their time. 14 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Industrial, ROCK: Noise Details: Rare, early experimental '80s pre-industrial avant psychedelia featuring the home grown sonics of Craig Clark, Tom Bailey, and Steve McDonald. Prophetically ahead of their time, darkly humorous, essential underground precursor to Chorus of Souls. Comes with BABY BOOM mini-comic signed by Craig Clark. Here's something for the ND crowd. You get early Pink Floyd mixed with Throbbing Gristle, Joy Division, Einsturzende Neubauten, etc. but without the esoteric snobbery that often plagues experimental music. I think of Marcel Duchamp or Man Ray with titles like Elf Machines and Funny Black Hat. The drums also give a nice foundation to an already mind-altering journey. Comes with a 5 page mini comic by drummer Craig Clark.
