The flowing eloquence of sincerity and loving fervor in an ambience that wants you to think of the sentiments of the songs with your heart, mind and emotions. 10 MP3 Songs POP: New Romantic, HIP-HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop Show all album songs: Love And Politics Songs Details: LOVE, we hear about it every day; people claim to love others or each other every day. But the definitions of what love is vary considerably. Sometimes it seems to be self-love, the service of self. Sometimes it seems to be selfless, sacrificial love, where only one party seems to benefit. One thing we can be sure of about Love: everybody seems to want it in some fashion or guise. In this album Cam K and the Fellowship Group deal with Love, our need for it, and why we are looking for it. They deal with lovers and love, and what lovers, especially female lovers, would like to get as love. This is clear in the first two cuts on the album, Oh For The Love I Need, and Love!Love!love! Give The Best You've Got comes across with highly vitalized and "primitive" drum rhythms, to make the point that if we give the best of ourselves, especially in love, we can have wonderful success that is shared on both sides, whether in love or otherwise striving, while Speak To My Heart, a tender love song, is about unity even in disagreement, harmony even in the act of quarreling, suggesting that human beings will have disagreement but that it need not shatter the general continuing harmony that exists between and among them. But the album also deals with another kind of love, and how the politics of war shatters this concept of love of human beings for each other's communities and general welfare, general concern for one another. War shatters the lives of ordinary people and brings a sorrow that never seems to fade with the recurrence of past memories. Will we wake up in time in our world to avoid the supreme tragedy of a war to end all wars? The album asks these questions and looks forward with some kind of hope to some unusual blend of Republican and Democratic leader capable of uniting and building with love. This is music sincerely poured out with an emphasis on truly meaningful lyrics that invite us to partake of it with a positive effect on our own thoughts of love, with a view to touching our lives with the harmony of loving intentions, from the alternative rap of Cam K and the Fellowship group in Hoping For Love and Looking For a Really Good Woman to the powerful effects in The Trick In Politics, which asks us to focus on the love between individuals that should be allowed to radiate in communities and flourish without the disastrous consequences of war. Love!Love!Love! However we conceive it, Is what we need to bless our lives in today's harsh world of brutal reality. Altogether an album that will enrich our lives, our listening and soften the love in our hearts, so that it spills over and blesses the lives around us. BUY IT TODAY AND RADIATE EVEN MORE LOVE TOMORROW. And just as importantly by so doing making a contribution to the excellent cause of Fellowship For Development.
