"Carlos has a most refreshing guitar voice that I would like to introduce to you. The works of his coming CD album are a portent to come. Expertly written and performed - with elegance, sensitivity, and outstanding musicianship that is truly world class" 19 MP3 Songs in this album (66:21) ! Related styles: NEW AGE: Solo Instrumental, CLASSICAL: Film Music People who are interested in Yanni John Williams Liona Boyd should consider this download. Details: In the world of the classic guitar, very few artists are able to perform and compose at a serious level of musicianship. Carlos Enrique is one of them. His music is melodic, sensitive, and accessible to the listener. His tone is warm and clean. It makes you forget you are listening to just one instrument. His chamber orchestra music is simply exquisite. After listening to his music, you cannot help but feel uplifted and touched. He is definitively one artist you will never forget!

"Carlos has a most refreshing guitar voice that I would like to introduce to you. The works of his coming CD album are a portent to come. Expertly written and performed - with elegance, sensitivity, and outstanding musicianship that is truly world class" John Catching - cellist/arranger, Nashville TN. Carlos Enrique was born in San Juan, Puerto Rico. He attended de Pablo Casals Conservatory of Music and studied composition with Amaury Veray and guitar with Leonardo Egurbida. Later, he graduated magna cum laude in Music and Classic Guitar. He received several awards for his exceptional talent in composition. In 1981 he was awarded 3rd prize finalist in the Mobil Corporation Classic Guitar competition in San Juan, Puerto Rico, and was the only one to receive honorable mention for his original compositions. In 1983, 84 and 85 he was awarded 1st, 3rd and 1st prize by the Institute of Culture of Puerto Rico for his compositions based on Puerto Rican dances for classic guitar. He later studied in the United States at the Esther Boyer College of Music in Temple University in Philadelphia with the maestro Peter Segal. He again graduated magna cum laude, with a Master in Music and Post Master Diploma in Performance. One the most important composers of Puerto Rico, Amaury Veray (1922-1995) in an award ceremony said, Carlos Enrique is one of our most gifted young composers and guitarists.
