Details: A PLUS From the visionary musical family that includes Del Tha Funkee Homosapien, Casual and Pep Love, Hieroglyphics Imperium presents A PLUS. For nearly two decades, A PLUS has been honing his skills as producer, artist, and businessman as a founding member of the underground hip-hop consortium known as Hieroglyphics. With Souls of Mischief, he helped change the face of Hip Hop through the innovative production and smooth flow realized on 1993s 93 Til Infinity and 1995s No Mans Land. In 2005, he released the first in a series of mix tapes, Pleemix Vol.1, and his eagerly anticipated debut solo effort, My Last Good Deed, is set for an early 2007 release. AAGEE Born in Oakland, California Aagee started playing instruments in the third grade. And over the years started producing at the age of 16 with guitars and drums. Years later, he started producing for California Bay artists, such as Dwayne Wiggins of Tony Toni Tone. As one of LP Records most established producers, Aagee specializes in various styles of music. Being a pro midi and audio engineer, one of Aagees largest accomplishments, was the movie scoring of Ed Laborde Jrs Caribbean breakthrough film Me Mrs. Jones. He is a self taught bass and piano player and a well rounded producer with unlimited production ability. Aagee's production skills speak for itself. A library of production lies with compound 7 and Compound 7 is going to take it worldwide.
