Details: DEATHMASK New York's deadliest rock band spins dark tales around lounge and rock sounds. The result is alarmingly sweet - you'll dance right into the light! In 2002, boy band sensations Mike Biskup and Boris Veysman summoned the souls of singer, Katy Cunningham and drummer, Steve Dans. The sance yielded heat and rock. Deathmask has been haunting New York night Life ever since. There have been deathmask sightings at world famous clubs such as Arlene's Grocery and The Knitting Factory. Some say they even caught a glimpse of the band on stage at the legendary Continental during its last week in the live music business. Others have claimed to have had near deathmask experiences across the Hudson at Kroghs and The Stanhope House; and throughout the Northeast including Philly, Boston, and Cape Cod. They rocked new fans on their Road To Wonderful Tour from Georgias Willow Oak Festival all the way to The Elbo Room in Chicago. Deathmasks first full length album, Evil Doers, was recorded and produced by deathmask and Kenny Cummings (Aretha Franklin, Elvis Costello, Midnight Oil, Shelby), and mixed by Tom Dekorte (Fat Joe, Luna). Both Kenny and Tom helped to capture the feel of deathmask's powerful live shows in the studio. Fred Kevorkian (Dave Mathews Band, White Stripes) mastered the album at Avatar Studios. With Their second album wonderful to be released March 7, 2008 at Fontanas in Manhattan, deathmask seeks to further expand its already growing audience. Deathmask lives, and deathmask loves you! People who are interested in should consider this download.
