Then went on to be an anthem throughout the country. It rose to no.1 for 2 weeks in January '09 on NRJ Radio (99.1 FM) and has steadily been on the Top 10 for two months by connecting with the hearts and aspirations of young people. DJ Bob introduced the instrumental to Keith Thompson when he was touring the country back in 2007. After several subsequent shows in Beirut which solidified Thompson's credentials as a crowd pleasing performer, Thompson recorded the song in Beirut on a visit in 2008. Sore throat and all, the passion can be heard in the recording done the afternoon after a gig. Thanks to the fans of Lebanon for the song's success! With regular play and promotion by DJ Bob (resident of club White and Eight) the song is now in the hearts of the people and spreading across the middle east because of it's pure message and strong energy. Released in Oct. 2008, produced by DJ Bob N. Constantine, remixes by Keith Thompson among others, will be coming January 2009 on sister label Monster Bang Music. myspace.com/keiththompson wakingMonster.com monsterbangmusic.com
