Details: Dominique Vouk is revealing herself to you. She has placed her hopes and fears, her dreams and her diary pages at your feet. Dominique's first original album is a liberating and startling glance at life through the eyes of a precocious young woman. With a unique blend of retro 80's synth styling's compliments of Doug Emery (Barbara Streisand, Kelly Clarkson, Jon Secada, Clay Aiken) and the primal pulsing guitar work of Dan Warner (Britney Spears, Christina Aguilera, Celine Dion) we are compelled to move and believe. Dominique laces her songs with persuasive pop-'sing-a-long' melodies and lyrics that remind us of the power in vulnerability. The result is a meld of songs with a pulse on life; that cuts through the senses and reaches the heart of the matter. With her new CD, Dominique Vouk, urges you to open up and hold your secrets up as a torch, to be possessed and feel the energy that reminds us that we are alive.
