Temptin' for her first Reapalife lp. I Know The Lord (Pure Love) is of course, my statement of fealty to Garveyite Christianity and written during a time when I'm reconnecting with the congregational ministries. I Ain't B Did Nuttin' To Nobody was again, inspired by a lyric and this time one dropped by Mal G on his solo album, Wild Life. Naturally (The Bomb) is just me and Ned (ie. Boothill) doing our thang. Black Soul Radio is the title track for my new radio show on the internet on that network. I know I'm gone get in trouble for that one :) Before The Storm was written for the victims of Katrina and the tsunami. Anyways this the new digs for the 06...39 and still rhyming son..eat'em up!
