Being a truly all-inclusive independent artist, merging his song-writing, performing and producing talents, he does enjoy collaborating with other musicians, producers and engineers, learning all he can to ensure his own ability to write music as a genuine reflection of his own experiences. Edwin released his debut-album "Emphasia" at the end of 2004. A touch of lovin, the first and only single taken from the album, was released early 2005. Despite very enthusiastic reactions from all sides of the globe, the track never received the needed airplay to enter the charts. International top-acts U2, Elton John, Lionel Richie and Bon Jovi have previously recorded material at the same location. The new adult and stylish sound reflects the combined influences of singer-songwriters George Michael, Mick Hucknall, Chris Rea, Lucie Silvas, Katie Melua, Norah Jones, John Mayer and James Blunt. "Loves embrace", the first single of the new album "Passion", has already received a lot of positive attention, resulting in a number of radioshow and promo-gigs.
