Details: COSE PREZIOSE "Music speaks from a secret mouth, to a secret ear. From its constant whispering, the precious things of my life spring out. Written without a scheme, they draw an exact figure, their author. You're never as naked as when you write music." Egidio Flamini COMMENTS "Yours are notes that curl in that universal language where the ignorance of syntax, paradoxically adds to the emotion of understanding; dear Egidio, yours is Cupid's miracle, touching the heart of lovers, whom are not allowed to know the chemical of their reactions, but whom are fully allowed to live the beautiful tale of their happiness; yours is music that makes happy, because it expands the light soul of those who listen to you, allowing for walking past the Pillars of Hercules of the body that holds it, sketching the light smile of the happy emotions on the faces of all of us." Absolutely beautiful Egidio. Listening to your music has been a wonderful way to start my day. ...I enjoyed the listen immensely. There's nothing like solo piano work. Your compositions are filled with subtleties and dynamics. And the quiet section where you play the "tender notes" are exquisite. The fluidity and grace that you play with, can be heard in your works. Thank you for sharing your talent and music with the world. You are a true artist. Lovely, divine, spiritual and enchanting...pure magic...I love your music...it is similar to Yann Tiersen but with your own flavor or style... ..your music...i can't even put it into words, the way i feel when i listen to it. You're marvelous talent, and i love love love your work. Thank you for your compositions. They are astounding, you have a way of expressing yourself that is so pure. I admire that. BIOGRAPHY
