"NueVision Jazz" This is My genre for the music that I write. It's not smooth or contemporary but a combination of many forms of the music that I grew up with and love to this day. It's a union of funk, jazz, classical pop. Fargo, Arkansas is home but now he calls Colorado his back home spot. After living in Hawaii again from 1999 to 2003, and basically calling it quits with his music career, he began writing again in 2003 thanks in part to a birthday party early that year in Hawaii at the home of one of his long time friends and musician buddies. The focus now is on his own genre of music appropriately named, NueVision Jazz. Classically trained on oboe and credited with being one of the youngest members of The Arkansas Symphony Orchestra at the age of 13, E.L. retired from ALL performing including [playing saxes and keyboards] back in 1991 after nearly 30 years and now enjoys his time with his wife Debra. Between 1976-1991 E.L. was Bandleader/Manager of several Top 40/R&B Bands performing in the U.S., Hawaii, Guam, The Phillipines, Korea, Japan, Okinawa, Puerto Rico, Guantanamo Bay Cuba and Panama. He has come out of retirement to play saxes on his compositions. The music he writes is not mainstream jazz, but is a combination of many aspects of the jazz genre with a unique twist. The music moves the soul and enlightens the mind. This is his passion! NueVision Jazz {Additional Music Studies} University of Arkansas @ Little Rock, Ar. Berklee College of Music Boston,Mass.
