Details: Helen's Music Helen Shanahan is a somewhat reluctant and accidental star in the making. She never meant to perform the songs she'd written. They were personal and private reflections written only because they naturally flowed from heart to lyric to guitar. Helen's songs, written while still at high school, ride the joys and sorrows of love and life and draw the listener into an articulate and heartfelt world of story, melody and guitar, through her eyes. With more than 30 songs already penned, Helen is honing her talents in the Perth pub and festival circuit. She is doing the rounds of open mics, busking opportunities and private events, and gathering a strong following of fans who identify with her authentic style and lyrical storytelling.
