Details: Connecticut native singer/songwriter, Jennifer Taylor, has been entertaining audiences in the Northeast for years with her emotive lyrics and striking melodies. On October 23, 2008, Taylor releases her 3rd full-length CD, All I Am, at the legendary Toads Place in New Haven, Connecticut. The first single, I Will Remember You, has been getting rave reviews on Connecticut's premier internet rock station, UltraRadio.com. Born in Bridgeport and raised in Naugatuck, Taylor now calls the cultural and artistic city of New Haven her home. For over ten years, she has traveled through out Connecticut and the Northeast bringing her music to thousands. Where ever she goes the response is the same- they love her. Prior to the recording of the musically diverse All I Am, Taylor released two other full-length CDs. She recorded A Different View in 2003. More mellow than her newest release, A Different Views songs are reflective in nature, especially Even If, written for her father - her musical inspiration - who suffers from MS. Five years earlier, in 1998, Taylor stormed onto the scene with her self-titled debut. Ten years later, the first track, Simple is still a crowd favorite. All I Am represents the best of both her previous recordings and more. This aptly titled CD reveals all of Jennifer Taylor as a person and an artist and is sure to meet great success.
