Details: "I've heard many of the comedy routines that we've manufactured, and Keith's CD is a must for any comedy lover's collection." Peter Szalay - Senior Account Executive, American Solutions for Business Keith Alberstadt is a "a hidden gem" according to The Boston Globe. Using unique angles to effectively display the "inner dork" that's in all of us, he showers the audience with a clever sarcasm to which everyone can relate. His material is smart without being brainy and easy-going but not hacky. With a sharp wit and down-to-earth charm, it's no wonder that he's one of the most memorable comics on the scene today. Keith has been seen on The Late Show with David Letterman, is a freelance writer for both Saturday Night Live's Weekend Update and Late Night with Jimmy Fallon. He has been featured on Country Music Television and CNN Headline News. He is also heard regularly on XM / Sirius Radio and the nationally-syndicated Bob Tom and John Boy Billy shows. He also regularly entertains U.S. Troops in Iraq, Afghanistan, and throughout the Middle East. Keith's friendly demeanor engages audiences of all kinds as he shines light-hearted cynicism on everything from technology to hard-core sports fans, but especially himself and his quirky behavior. With an undeniable likability and a fresh sense of humor, it's not surprising to see that Keith is routinely listed as a favorite among comedy fans nationwide. "He's funny, and it's a smart funny." -Kathleen Madigan "Absolutely hilarious!" -Armed Forces Entertainment "Lovely." -David Letterman
