A contemporary and fresh project based on Venezuelan traditional music 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: like Ani, LATIN: Cuatro Details: Los Sinverg¹/₄enzas, musical ensemble, was born as a music experiment in Mrida in 1999. Its musicians created a compilation of the folk music, and then they made some adaptations to the new style of interpretations. Later, in February 2000, they founded this ensemble with a concert which took place in the Aula Magna of the University of Los Andes; since then, they have made an important work when it comes to compositions and musical arrangements of the Venezuelan folk music genre. The youth of its integrants allows a work in a continuous evolution. This particularity gives them a chance to get involved into de vast musical ensembles movement. They dont want to continue with the 50 years ago interpretation style; on the contrary, they seek to improve their interpretation and produce a new style of the Venezuelan folk music. Among the arrangements, there is a large diversity that has always distinguished the Venezuelan music (Jazz + folkloric music + academic music), this is a result of the different music tendencies of each member of the group. They dont attempt to be the pioneers nor the best interpreters of this music, on the contrary, they just would like to cultivate a conscience of the Venezuelan folk music in an international level. This young musicians want to create a prestige of this new artistic expression, and achieve the same artistic level as the respected and famous foreign music that, in one way or another, has influenced this new tendency of the Venezuelan folk music. Los Sinverg¹/₄enzas ensemble has had an excellent acceptance not only by the Venezuelan public, but also by the international public. They have had also the honor of represent Venezuela in different music festivals, receiving outstanding comments.
