Details: Hello: I want to introduce to you the group Rayain. Maurice Patterson, Harold Copeland, and Cameo Holliday, are very talented and skilled male vocalists with the abilities to write and produce. Each member brings their own individuality and style to this dynamic group. Maurice Patterson age 22, the youngest and latest addition to Rayain, brings the completion of harmony to the group with his soulful, jazzy styled, and smooth yet strong vibrato voice in the third baritone range. He was the perfect voice to complete the ensemble. In addition Moe has written songs, arranged harmonies for the group such as; I Will, Oooh, In Your Heart, and Headboard Knocking. His very flamboyant and confident persona makes him a star in his own right. Harold Copeland age 25, the second eldest member is the heart and soul of the group, bringing a smooth yet raspy sexy sound to the group as well as a wide natural vocal range from bass to alto, which makes him the most versatile of the three. Harold has unique production skills, producing most of the tracks for Rayain such as; Got's to Be, Oooh, Headboard Knocking, And I, and A to Z, with his cool calm and collective attitude he stands out as a very talented individual as well as a star. Cameo Holliday age 26, the eldest and the big brother of the group brings his strong, first baritone, sharp, and sultry voice to the group. With his melodic skills and an ear for melody he is the primary writer for the group. He has written ballots such as; Miss You, And I, Got's to Be as well as up tempos such as Spillin' My Drank, Friday Night, and Reminiscing. He writes songs that people can relate to as well as move to, in turn giving each member a chance to display their elements on stage as well as on their albums. With his determination and drive he helps the group stay focused on ultimately reaching stardom. Thank you.
