Radio-Ready hit songs with an irresistibly familiar female voice that manage to tell stories about crazy neighbors, acceptance, undying hope, existential questioning and discovering meaning in the midst of difficulty. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Red Letter is the musical union and songwriting team of Jessica Tomich and Frank Sorci. Blending catchy pop hooks with sophisticated and compelling instrumentation, Red Letter's sound strikes a unique balance between youthful energy and wiser, well-traveled souls. Red Letter has placed songs in a multitude of film and TV spots and is currently writing with and for other artists, along with completing their second album of original material entitled "Under the Same Hot Sun". Red Letter's lead vocalist and songstress Jessica Tomich began her career as a singer/songwriter at the age of 15 with Columbia Records. Tomich has been featured as lead vocalist on the Fox Family Network series Higher Ground, in the feature film "Voyage of the Unicorn" and has become a familiar voice on national commercials. Red Letter's polished sonic signature is crafted by Frank Sorci, an accomplished producer, songwriter and guitarist. Sorci is a true musical artisan who has toured extensively and contributed his talents to numerous studio projects. Most recently, Sorci can be heard performing on the Fox Family Network series Higher Ground in which he is the featured guitarist. Red Letter recently signed a publishing deal with North Star Media. The songwriting team has been embraced by the A&R community and artists alike and is currently writing with and for top artists.
