Lush, dramatic, emotionally evocative and sensually textured - a twisted, seething hip-hop-infused epic. 5 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Down Tempo, ELECTRONIC: Trip Hop Details: A rock drummer from Portland, Oregon turned DJ and breakbeat enthusiast, Seth Norman has been composing and producing his own music electronically for 6 years. His work has been licensed for numerous compilations, radio play, and multimedia performance from coast to coast. The Concatenation E.P. is his debut independent release, filled with thick sonic texture, sweeping melody and an engrossing atmosphere. It is inspired equally by hip hop, turntablism, and drum 'n bass as it is by film soundtracks, metal, jazz and funk. Sounds from myriad styles and eras of music all adorn the same aural paintbrush. As a collection of songs that have consistently drawn attention for their moving, sentimentally powerful tone and complex composition, Concatenation reflects a passion for emotional expression and release in art.
