DANGEROUS OLD WOMEN PRODUCTIONS invites you to meet and come to know the many faces and facets of your bright inner masculine energy. If we want to see more of the Bright Masculine in the world and in the men in our lives, we must begin with ourselves. 9 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: Instructional, NEW AGE: Meditation Details: Invoking the Bright Inner Masculine invokes the bright archetypal energies of the Father, Warrior, Magician, Lover, and King. You will meet these inner men, discover their strengths and resources, and have opportunities for healing and guidance. These inner men can serve us as allies and co-creative partners in our lives, rather than as critics, judges, and saboteurs. This translates as healthier relationships with outer men-we project less on to them. We come to realize that what is "out there" is actually within us-and we can do something about that! The CD features meditations spoken by Sheila Foster, founder of The School for Women Healers, in Tracks 2-9. Kirsten D'Andrea Hollander speaks the prayer in Track 1. Teresa Whitaker and Frank Schwartz created the vocals. "Who would you be, what would your life be like, if you could ask an Inner Man for help, creative ideas, support-and receive it? Imagine how your life might be if you were in right relationship with both the inner and outer masculine?" -Sheila Foster Dangerous Old Women Productions was formed by its two co-directors, Sheila Foster, M.A., and Kirsten D'Andrea Hollander, M.F.A., in March of 1998. Both women are visual artists and both have undergone major kundalini initiations.
