This CD contains definitive works of Tosin as a drummer/composer. It is world beat rendered in a traditional/contemporary mix. If you are familiar with Global Rhythms by Mickey Hart, Babatunde Olatunji's Drum Of Passion, Lion King, Fela Kuti, and other We 9 MP3 Songs WORLD: World Beat, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: Biography As a composer and leader of his own group, HalleluJazz Project, the Nigerian drummer Tosin Aribisala has launched out another album to his credit. Having performed, recorded and toured with such mainstream acts like Julie Dexter, Femi Kuti, Talib Kwali, Taj Mahal, DAngelo and Yerba Buena, to name a few, Tosin has fully come into his own with his second album, Mean What U Say Da Drum Monologue Project, which is a follow-up to his successful debut. Drum Monologue Project The brainchild of Tosin Aribisala, drum monologue is an expression of polyrhythmic, groovy, lyrical and melodic phrases on the drumset. The elements of the monologue include the lyrical and groovy patterns that are specific to the Nigerian (Yoruba) percussion instrument called gangan - the talking drum; plus the fusion of jazz techniques for the creation of a hybrid musical texture. Other features of the drum monologue are choral embellishments with a voice ensemble and also a percussion ensemble. These nuances produce an exciting and inspiring orchestration - an amalgamation of cross-cultural influences that adds color and beauty to the whole performance.
