Williams Clark Expedition with bluegrass veterans Blake Williams, Bobby Clark, Wayne Southards, and Kimberly Williams, perform the best bluegrass being heard today with killer harmonies, driving instrumentals and original music as well. 14 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Bluegrass, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: Williams Clark Expedition could be described by some as a new band on the bluegrass scene. But when you consider the members of the group are Blake Williams, Bobby Clark, Wayne Southards and Kimberly Williams, you know this is not a group of newcomers. All have very impressive musical credentials, having worked for the music's forefathers, Bill Monroe and Lester Flatt, to some of the earlier bluegrass bands, The Bluegrass Cardinals and Tennessee Gentlemen, to even the artists who have just become popular in the last couple of decades like Mike Snider, Kathy Chiavola and Larry Cordle. No one can deny the bluegrass pedigree of Williams Clark Expedition's members. What is surprising to most, is the band voice that was created when these talented people formed this band just over 3 years ago. In 2003, 2004 and 2005 they were honored with an "Emerging Artist of the Year" nomination by the IBMA. In a very short time, they have gone from a band no one knew, to one of bluegrass music's most requested groups. It is no mystery why this band is becoming so popular so quickly. They offer superb musicianship, hauntingly tight harmonies, traditional and contemporary lead vocal styles, original material, humor, and history in every performance. And each member is as personable as they are talented, believing the audience comes first. They do everything they can to show that, from their stage performances, to the lively conversation with any and all who want to visit afterwards. It really is quite simple... Williams Clark Expedition loves what they do and it shows!
