What if our minds were stronger than we ever thought possible? What if we could control not only our own destiny but also that of the people around us? What if nothing was impossible? Two men have unlocked the secrets of the mind; one is using it to make people's lives better and the other is pure evil. Jack Firebrace has a gift. He has helped hundreds of people but he senses something sinister has come looking for him. Innocent people are dying, the people Jack is helping are in trouble and to add to his predicament a serial killer is mutilating women in a bizarre ritual. Can Jack find the link from his past that will allow him to restore the balance? What if Jack has set all this in place by meddling in other people's lives? He has finally met the woman he loves and now she is the main target, or is she the bait?
