Details: After years of doing what other people thought was right for her, Allison Affleck has finally started down the road to chasing her dream and has had a blast doing it. Although she was always practical and finished schooling with a Masters Degree in Business, Allison never gave up the idea of singing her songs in front of a huge stadium someday. The desire to share her songs and talent brings you her new album This Storm. She has a way of looking at the world through her own lense and creating music that expresses her personality. Allison has always been the practical, grounded type and writing and playing music is the outlet for her thoughts and feelings. One of her greatest pleasures is playing her music and writing songs that hook you and wont let you go. Allisons songs have a lyrical sass to them that lets the listener into her world. Songs like Bag of Chips and Life Goes On show the confidence that she has in herself as a person and as an artist. Then on the other hand there are songs like Torn Apart, I Hurt Today, and Dont Give Up that allow people to understand the vulnerability that allows her to write songs that people can identify with. Whether its a slow, sad song or a happy driving tune, her ability to write incredibly catchy songs is one of her greatest strengths as a writer. This Storm is an album that you can listen to on repeat and theres no need to skip to the good songs. Every song on this album is worth listening to over and over. With her experience playing at places such as the Bluebird Caf in Nashville or recording in Los Angeles, she has learned about the business and she still wants to pursue it! Allison has a tenacity for what she wants and that is to share her music with the world. See you at the Grammys.
