Grr,' is one of the most common verbal exchanges that occurs in certain chat-rooms. While I admit I'm shamelessly using the words to attract special attention. I'm also trying to point out, in a respectful satirical way, that this conversational short-hand at times contradicts the notion that we are more than the sum of our parts. 'Hey. Woof! Grr...' Is also a nod of thanks to all the support my first CD received. I turned to the musical style of 'Bauhaus' and 'Dianovo II' from Collections I as inspiration for 'H.W.G.' Unlike my first three efforts, all 13 tracks on this CD were were composed on my laptop, using a small keyboard and REASON 4.0 Software. Additionally, none of them were based on my previous piano works. This time around I was inspired by more modern themes events. I had a great time making this CD. Yes, I know still I have a lot to learn but I've made a conscious choice to learn as I go, imperfections all. Once again I would like to sincerely thank everyone for their support.
