An original style of aggressive R&B, with a mix of both southern "ATL" hip-hop bounce, and rich soulful ear candy vocals, guaranteed to send chills throughout your entire body. 5 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Traditional R&B, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: Born and raised in southern California, 21 yr. old Brandon Lamar is a one of a kind R&B artist who is guaranteed to vocally raise the standards of the music industry (vocally, most commonly compared to Tyrese, Lyfe Jennings, Jodeci, Sisqo and members of Dru Hill). An aggressive, in your face whether you like it or not style is what Brandon Lamar is greatly known for, which by far separates him from the rest of the "so-called" R&B pack. Brandon Lamar is by far well above any other R&B artist in the industry, do to the complex fact that he has amazingly raw talent for singing with a soulful, spine tingling voice and can spit a sick rap flow just as good as he can sing (most commonly compared to Lil' Wayne)....if you've ever heard him sing, you would know that that's sayin' alot!! Brandon Lamar shows off his rapping skills on the last verse of his first hit single entitled, "They Don't Know Me", which was a song inspired by the fact that people always tried to put him in a box and say he can only do singing....until they finally hear him rap too, LOL....then their minds change. Commonly referred to as "the singer with a rappers mentality", Brandon Lamar is here to stay, and if you ever wanna see Brandon Lamar at his absolute best with enough skills to shut up every critic who has anything negative to say about him, just tell Brandon Lamar that he "CANT" do something.....then watch him work.
