Settle showcases Daniels unique songwriting talent and his ability to find and project the lush originality in his musical and lyrical content. Featuring production and masterful string arrangements from Nizlopis John Parker (a veteran of over a decades success on the indie music scene), Settle is a captivating and attention grabbing demonstration of a young artists potential being fulfilled. ABOUT FINN DANIEL: Finn Daniel writes and performs songs that move and provoke. At 24 Finn has developed a way of communicating with a thrilling honesty and a voice that touches the soul. An instinctive musician who started out as a classically trained piano player, Finn then embraced the acoustic guitar as the perfect partner for writing and performing his deeply personal songs. Raised in a large family where he says everyone played or sang, Finn is already an experienced writer and performer at the age of 24. Having paid his musical dues in open mics and local support slots, by the time he was 19 Finn was booking and playing his own gigs across the country. This strong development trail has found Finn in some great musical company. With his career to date having seen him sharing concert bills with breakthrough artists like Duke Special, Nizlopi, and Beth Rowley, Daniel has clocked up a number of appearances at leading locations on the London music scene such as Indig02 at the 02 Arena, The Borderline, The Bedford, and Regal Rooms. Outside the metropolis he has developed a strong local following, playing at well known venues such as Worcesters Marrs Bar, and Thekla, Bristol. Embracing web 2.0s liberation of musicians, Finn prides himself on offering as much content as possible for those who make the effort to come and see it. His official website and MySpace are full to bursting with free tracks, promo and live videos, and all the latest news in the words of the artist himself.
