Details: An emerging talent in the vibrant Chicago folk scene, Jenny mines rich songwriting material from the often-overlooked moments of everyday life. Lyrically, her evocative sense of location and play has garnered her comparisons to Suzanne Vega, Alanis Morissette, and Joni Mitchell. Her original songs, recorded in the studio, live, and on the radio, have been collected in this striking first album. A seasoned back-up singer as well as solo performer, Jenny accompanies her original songs with both rhythmic strumming and fingerpicking. In larger situations, she often works with a bass and harmony singers. She is establishing herself as an entertaining and thought-provoking artist to watch.
