Details: Biography For Lauren McLean-Britt AKA: Sweet Lamb Biography For Lauren A. McLean-Britt AKA: Sweet Lamb Lauren McLean-Britt, Sweet Lamb, is one of Bostons own rising gospel artists. She is a graduate of Emerson College in Boston, MA, where she studied the Performing Arts. But long before her college days, Lauren had been belting the songs since the tender age of five years old. Laurens love for music and singing has always been encouraged by family and friends and lovingly nurtured by the Church. As a teenager, she participated in the Garthenia Beal Gospel Ensemble of Concord Baptist Church in Boston under the direction of Minister Freda Battle. Freda taught me early on, Lauren states, that its not just enough to love the music, but youve got to be dedicated to putting in the time to learn all you can about the music. Lauren also recalls about her early role model, Freda always stayed focused and serious about her music, and she was committed to making sure that the Beal Gospel Ensemble sang those songs RIGHT! Its no doubt that Ive been influenced by one of gospels very best. Over the years, Lauren has showcased her vocal talent through her commitment to church and community choirs, and through performances in local musical theatre productions of Raisin, Your Arms Are Too Short to Box with God, and the Wiz. Though musical theatre is one of Laurens favorite pastimes, it cannot compare to the joy she derives from singing Gods praises through contemporary and traditional gospel songs. Ive found my niche or should I say my gift has made room for me, she says quoting a familiar scripture from Proverbs 18:16. Make room indeed, for Laurens debut gospel CD album, In Spite of the Rain. It is a soul stirring, foot stompin collection of heart-felt original songs written by the Sweet Lamb gospel artist herself. These songs express victory in Christ Jesus, in spite of the curve balls life throws our way, says Lauren. I pray this project is a blessing to all who will take the time to listen.
