A good comparison for this album would be DR. DRE's The Chronic. This album just takes it to the next level of evolution with the production of the tracks and the songs and delivery of "LP". It's a classic album and a must have. 18 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Rap Details: Buick City Records was founded by Corey "LBoggie" Luster and Tigris "LP" Clemons in 2005. With hardwork determination and a lot of Hustle. Buick City Records is bringing you "LP's" much anticipated Debut Album "Black Sunday" with smash singles like "Talkin Dirty", "I'm a King" and hot street joints like "Big Monsta bad Man (which is the much talked about and anticipated "Game Diss joint) along with F@ck Da World and many more bangers on this classic album! LP was born Tigris T. Clemons October 9th 1980 at Flint's Hurley Hospital to a single mother by the name of Elsie Mae Clemons. He grew up on Rakin Street in Flint Michigan. LP's passion for music began with his father who unknowingly helped his son develop an ear for music by explaining to him what good music was all about. By 1992 LP discovered Yo MTV raps and not only could he hear Hip Hop He could see it and that's when he knew, that he wanted to become a rapper, only one problem though he couldn't rap. So he studied rappers like Biggie, 2Pac, MC Breed and Spice 1. LP was also influenced by local artists like The Dayton Family, Top Authority and a rapper from Detroit who went by the name of Esham. After months of studying the art LP developed his own unique style and flow he could freestyle like no other it was effortless, which further confirmed his direction in music, but he couldn't write. By 1994 LP met this dude named James Dixon this cat was writing raps but could not freestyle so they offered to teach each other what the other knew. A year later, they became two deep. They were hot back in junior high inspiring the other kids to become rappers too. By high school they separated, James was locked up and LP was waiting on the birth of his first son. Still holding it down with the rap thing making noise in the streets from block to block and school to school LP had cats from all ova Flint skipping school just to battle him because, he was the dude with the flow. Fast forward, 2003 LP arrived in Dallas Texas December 03, with two suit cases and a hundred dollars in his pocket 2 months later LP started on his solo album recording with one of the best engineers in Texas by the name of Maurice Alexander at the Liquid Lab. This dude introduced him to Corey LBoogie Luster one of the hottest unknown producers to date. With their brains and combined hustle, they plan to take the industry by storm and the rest is the future. It is Futile to Resist it has Begun!!!!!! B.U.I.C.K. C.I.T.Y. Fa Life!!!!!!
