Related styles: NEW AGE: Ambient, AVANT GARDE: Free Improvisation Details: Shekinah, Shamah David A gathering of prophetic mystical glory-realm musicians expressing spontaneous adoration for Yeshua. Shekinah Shamah are from Juneau Alaska and David is from Lakota Sioux territory in South Dakota. Shamah aka Patrick has played guitar for more than 30 years and has worked in the professional music community in Juneau Alaska and Seattle Washington. He has extensive experience and exposure to improvisational jazz and blues with some classical influence. Shamahs Celtic heritage brings a unique quality of harmonic vibration to your listening experience. Shekinah aka Toni sings in a very flowing ambient style, creating new rhythms and sounds each time she plays. She awoke to this ability through a divine encounter and has a unique flow using a wide palette of sounds. Her Cherokee and Celtic heritage bring out an incredible variety of new sounds. David started playing improvisational saxophone at the age of 12 and now plays a wide variety of world instruments. He has been heavily influenced by the tribal sounds of Native America and also by Asian music. An earthy melodic flow describes Davids music, it will blow a fresh divine wind on your being. Together Shamah, Shekinah and David make the group Mystic Wind. Let the flow carry you into divine realms of healing and relaxation.
