Taking Burt Bacharach as her inspiration Ruby Paul's second album explores love and sexuality in a stripped back acoustic setting which underpins an outstanding vocal performance. 12 MP3 Songs in this album (41:26) ! Related styles: EASY LISTENING: Adult contemporary, EASY LISTENING: Easy Pop People who are interested in Julia Fordham Norah Jones Carla Bruni should consider this download. Details: Rubys new record reflects her live sound. Unlike Velvet Glove, there are no big arrangements: its simply one voice, one guitar, throughout. While the stripped back approach is popular with contemporary artists such as Jack Johnson, this project started out by looking back to the era of Karen Carpenter. Im often told I sound like her, says Ruby, so I took my inspiration from classic jazz and bossanova songs, such as Burt Bacharach and Antonio Carlos Jobim. The finished album, Forbidden Fruit skilfully interleaves original tracks with covers such as Close To You and Ill never Fall In Love Again. Sit back and melt in the warmth of Rubys voice, marvel at Rubys clever way with words in Soundtrack to My life written about Karen Carpenter, or shiver at the simmering sensuality of the headline original track Forbidden Fruit,influenced by Frances leading lady,Carla Bruni. "The album has a quality and simplicity that's utterly captivating. It gently explores the nooks and crannies of love and loss with great sophistication." Phoenix FM "The perfect CD to put on when friends come round, it will go on the ipod under 'crisps and nibbles'" - Rachel "...superb voice and first class songs- really chilled" - Tony Ledley, Scarborough
