Electro-Acoustic Details: This CD includes a collection of contemporary ensemble works by Ofer Pelz. All the compositions were recorded live from concerts played by top league Israeli musicians. Ofer Pelz, an Israeli composer, currently lives in Paris. He started his musical education in Haifa Music Conservatory as a pianist and in the Wizo-Canada High School of Arts in Composition. Ofer received a Master with excellence in Composition and Music Theory from Jerusalem's Academy of Music and Dance, and studied with Yoram Leef, Vacislav Ganelin and Ari Ben-Shabtai. Today he continues to study Electro-Acoustic Composition in Paris with Octavio Lopez and Christine Groult. Ofer was chosen to be one of the five finalists in the XI Franco Evangelisti International Composition Competition in Rome. He won a competition in ICL (Israel Composers League) and will represent Israel in ACMF - Asian Contemporary Music Festival 2009 in South Korea, as a young composer. He also won the First Prize in the "Chana Avni-Yador Competition for Composers 2007". Ofer's music was performed all around the world and in important festivals such as: "Israel Festival" (Jerusalem), "Kol Hamusica in the upper Galilee" (Kfar Blum), "Fontys Dans Festival" (Roosendaal), Heidelberger Biennale für Neue Musik (Heidelberg), Nuova Consonanza (Rome). Ofer has published two pieces on commercial CD and an article through the Oryon Publish House. His music was broadcasted several times on the classical radio station "Kol Hamusica". The score InsideOut, written for Meitar Ensemble, had been published by the Israeli Music Institute (IMI). Ofer cooperates with many film creators, and dance choreographers. He composed music for an animation film that was awarded the first prize at the "Haifa International Film Festival 2003", and also the first prize at the "Beijing Animation Festival 2005". Pelz is a member of ICL

(Israel Composers League) and of Acum (Authors, Composers Publishers Association).
