

Changing Governance Of The Sciences

DOWNLOAD HERE

Preface- Introduction- Changing Governance of the Public Sciences: The consequences of establishing diverse research evaluation systems - Richard Whitley- Universities as Strategic Actors: State delegation and changing patterns of evaluation- The Visible Hand versus the Invisible Hand: The Allocation of Research Resources in Swedish Universities - Lars Engwall and Thorsten Nybom- Prospective and Retrospective Evaluation Systems in Context: Insights from Japan - Robert Kneller- Elite through Rankings The Emergence of the Enterprising University - Peter Weingart and Sabine Maasen- The Social Construction of Bibliometric Evaluations - Jochen Glser and Grit Laudel- Weak and Strong Research Evaluation Systems- Evaluation without evaluators: The impact of funding formulae on Australian university research - Jochen Glser and Grit Laudel- The Basic State of Research in Germany: Conditions of Knowledge Production Pre-Evaluation - Stefan Lange- Research Evaluation as Organisational Development the Work of the Academic Advisory Council in Lower Saxony- Christof Schiene and Uwe Schimank- Interfering Governance and Emerging Centres of Control: University research evaluation in the Netherlands - Barend van der Meulen- Research Evaluation in Transition: Individual versus organisational assessment in Spain - Laura Cruz-Castro and Luis Sanz-Menendez- Death by Peer Review? The impact of results-oriented management in U.S. research - Susan Cozzens- Concluding Reflections- The Social Orders of Research Evaluation Systems - Jochen Glser- Author Index List of Authors & Affiliations EAN/ISBN : 9781402067464 Publisher(s): Springer Netherlands Format: ePub/PDF Author(s): Whitley, Richard - Glaser, Jochen

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals:

Changing Governance Of The Sciences