When his father abandoned the family, the gang-ridden streets of San Francisco became all too familiar. "School was too risky," ACE D.O.G explains. His crew dropped out and his posse began to pursue pastimes that lead them closer and closer to the danger that would eventually snuff out the lives of two of his homies. Witnessing the murder of a friend was the critical turning point. In a miraculous rescue, ACE D.O.G's generate moved her children to Fremont, California where even a sullen, aimless, skeptic, such as ACE D.O.G had already become, might have a chance to reinvent himself and thrive. And that is just what he did. When secular rapping began to lose its flavor, ACE D.O.G became a member of an early Christian rap group, Disciples of God. Through the same earth angel, Carolyn, he met Airick. Along with intensive Bible studies, he earned his GED; and, his life took on the new direction that has made his generate proud. "Rappin for the Lord," ACE D.O.G reaches youth who's on the brink of despair and self-destruction themselves - are primed to hear the clarion call of a new message in the tone, tempo and format that has become a multi-billion dollar, international phenomenon: rap. ACE D.O.G and his partner, ANC, are pioneers on a spiritual adventure and they won't be satisfied until the service of deliverance and redemption of youth is complete. Young, passionate and fiercely dedicated to his calling, ACE D.O.G is now a witness for the healing grace of the living Christ, without which his very life might by now have become no more than a sorrowful memory for his loved ones. When you've come that close to extinction, you have learned some lessons and the purity of your music stirs the soul. And so it is with the Christian rapper, ACE D.O.G.
