With an ear for music, a natural gift and an ability to play any instrument put in front of him Chad Pollett is by far one of the most precious gems in the community today. Though new on the scene, Chad roots with music stem back to early childhood. He began training on the organ with Marilee Risling at the Saskatoon Academy of Music at the age of five continued to receive training from Marilee until the age of fifteen. Shortly after leaving the academy, Chad began to experiment with pianos and keyboards; he quickly discovered the love for producing music and soon began performing with icons such as the Jordan Cook Band, Wide Mouth Mason and many more. Influenced and inspired by Michael Jackson, Stevie Wonder, Burton Cummings, 2pac, the Doobie Brothers, Musiq Soulchild and Boys II Men, Chads music is a creative replica of where he currently is in his life. At the tender age of 22, Chads gift is just beginning to flourish into the scene through music composition, production, singing and song writing. Dont be fooled his soulful voice has a soft, smooth edge, speaking a language of art and passion unique to his own. His music embraces and encompasses you wholeheartedly leaving nothing but the true language of soul and music in your ears. A sound to be remembered and a name never forgotten, Chad Pollett is a gem yet to be discovered
