"Techno Jazz at its very best. The Album is hauntingly innovative and is strong rhythmically." John Reid, Keith Community Radio (Keith, Banffshire, Scotland) 5 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Electro, JAZZ: Acid Jazz Details: Scenes from Cinematic Life EP Elliott James' CD, Cinematic Life, received praise from around the world when it was released in 2006. Now Elliott has remixed and re-mastered five of his favorite and most popular songs from Cinematic Life for this special, digital download only release. The songs are even more alive, with new energy and clarity. Some of the original reviews for Cinematic Life: James seems to have mastered the art of electronica so that we aren't presented with some ham-handed piece of thumping boredom. Instead, each track conjures up a specific moment in time. Songs like 'Midnight Desert Run,' and 'Deep Forest Rain,' make you feel exactly as their titles. Sal Nunziato, New York music writer "There's quite a bit of soul packed into this fairly short album which shines because of its ability to get across feelings and atmosphere. Dene Bebbington, Melliflua.com "Beautiful, moody stuff which requires quiet moments and concentration. Surrounding the listener with somewhat mystical themes, expertly weaved in and out of artists' vision into reality of everyday life. Thematically connected into stream of beautiful melodies which haunt even when they are gone." Vasja Ivanovski, 94.1 FM RADIO 2 (Macedonia) "Oh, the deep base and jazz beat on this track is so 'Streets at 2am' that I was looking for a bar around the corner. I love the electronic keyboard on this and felt this could end up as a backdrop to any Film Noir you may want to put this into. This piece ends on a piano note, like the sun coming up, and is very delightful. MA Foster, music reviewer AmbientVisions.com A vessel for Elliott James warm, passionate guitar playing. It draws influences from the world of new age music, hypnotic space rock, dub and ambient world beats. Swishing and droning synths fill out the space between your ears as the album progresses. All in all, Cinematic Life is a sonic treat. A must for lovers of new age music seeking something heavier. A must for those seeking out new rock grooves who are keen to stay away from the metal or rock scenes. Cinematic life is deep ponderous musicians music. It is music for musics sake. I like it a lot. DJ Excavator , SENSE-AETHERICA, (Norwich, England, UK) "Very, very nice! Excellent instrumental work, great, smooth groove. This is a terrific project." Fred Dowdy, Central Ohio Record Pool "Elliott James takes his passion for acoustic instruments to another level on his release Cinematic Life. By using the cello, harp, piano, upright bass, guitar, and some sounds of nature, like falling rain and chirping birds. Atmospheric tracks like Deep Forest Rain and Midnight Desert Run paint the necessary visuals for you. He creates his own personal cinema for the body, mind, and spirit without uttering a word. It is very effective. Keith "MuzikMan" Hannaleck "This is a great 'themed ' album which I am playing on both the radio and out at live gigs preferring the tracks with the groove to the down-tempo. Overall well worth supporting. Can't wait for the next release!" James Lewis, Celtica Radio (Swansea, Wales, UK) "Just a note to say we like the recent release 'Cinematic Life' here at 100,000 watt KUMD in Duluth, MN. Is getting 2-3 spins a week within our eclectic mix. Like the guitar work as well as the smooth jazz vibe. Good record!" John Ziegler, KUMD-FM "We really love this CD on The Upper Room Radio Show. For all music lovers, no excuse to not have this CD right now on your CD players because no collection is complete without this essential CD." Gi Dussault, Co-Host Co-Producer Upper Room Radio Show, WVOF 88.5 FM (Fairfield, CT) "What a great sound you have, I have played several of your tracks to date and plan to schedule more in future programs. Keep up the good work and please keep me up to date with your progress." Michael Criddle, OzRadio (Australia) "The music and production is excellent. I'll be playing it loads and recommending it." Jason Eli, Groovadelica, George FM (Auckland, New Zealand) People who are interested in Daniel Lanois Moby Brian Eno should consider this download.
