Jake calls this CD "stuff", because it is full of all kinds of stuff. The thing is, it's Jake's stuff: Instrumental, improvisation, Piano, orchestral, keyboards, and some Irish luck thrown in. "Rants and raves have been coming in day after day." 15 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Orchestral, CLASSICAL: Film Music Show all album songs: stuff Songs Details: Here at last ... Composer, studio engineer, singer and world class keyboard player. ( jakehill) Jake studied piano, organ, voice, recorder and music theory as a young boy. By the age of 12, he was performing in the company of Arthur Fiedler of the Boston Symphony, Seiji Ozawa, Michael Tilson Thomas of the Philadelphia Philharmonic and The Boston Opera Company to name a few. He received scholarships from The Boston Archdiocese Choir School and The New England Conservatory of Music, attending N.E.C. and Boston College High School at the same time, all by the age of 18. Although Jake is spending most of his energy writing and recording his own projects in San Antonio, TX, he is available for studio work via mail/email and concerts around the country, as well as solo and fill-in keyboard player. Thousands of hours in studio time, writing his own material for film, pop music and digital music for web, make Jake a dynamic, precision live player. He is known affectionately as One Take Jake!
