Walz Music is an audio production company focusing on original video game composition and development but also releases titles that game, anime and dance music fans collect and adore. Teresa Hewitt is blessed with a chart full of fire signs. You will sense her warmth the moment you see her flaming red hair and hear her sweet, passionate voice. She made her dance music debut with nR Element's album "Miscommunication" on the track "The Promised Land," which is a cover version from the Final Fantasy video game. Teresa is warm healing and is an important part of the Walz Music team of artists and records as a vocalist and voiceover actress. She recently can be heard as the voice of Te'ijal in Aveyond: Lord of Twilight. Fittingly, Teresa Hewitt, the half Leo, half Fire Dragon, lives in the desert in Tucson, Arizona.
