The Benny Goodman sextet rides again. This is hot swingin' jazz with a tint of modernistic spice. 17 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Swing/Big Band, JAZZ: Jazz Vocals Opus 1/2 Songs Details: Any time of day or night, After Midnight is your source for the best in Swing Jazz, Romance and Blues. This is Denver's hottest swingtet sculptural after Benny Goodman's democratic small band sounds of the 1930s and 40s. These professional musicians have performed around the world for everything from small clubs to stage shows. With a simple instrumentation of Clarinet, Vibraphone, Vocals, Bass, Guitar, Drums, and Piano, this small group is uniquely exciting. Whether you like danceable music from the Great Swing Era or contemporary jazz standards, you will love their music! This CD, Opus 1/2, "swings like mad!" according to Denver's own KUVO 89.3 jazz radio station! It includes a fantastic blend of Goodman standards, fabulous vocals, and several original tunes. Special guest clarinetist Bill Pontarelli is featured in a clarinet duet with Roger Campbell on Peanuts Hucko's famous "Stealin' Apples". The CD also features special guest Rick Weingerten on Vibraphone. It also highlights the amazing vocal talents of Rekha Ohal on a number of tunes including Billy Holiday's "God Bless the Child". Rekha's vocal talents have been compared to Diana Krall and Nora Jones. Over 70 minutes in length, this CD is a must have for any jazz and swing lover!
