While investigative reporter Catherine Steel looks for Mr. Right, she tries to learn if someone murdered the janitor from her old high school. Catherine Steel is an investigative reporter for a newspaper in Ohio. To supplement her income so that she can buy clothes and gifts for her small godchild, she writes fluff pieces for womens magazines. Two recent articles are: What To Wear to Get Noticed and Catherines Ten Simple Dating Rules. When Jake Michaels fills a sports editors spot on the paper, Catherine wonders if he is man enough to fulfill her fantasy. And does she want him to be the one? After all, he broke her heart ten years ago in high school when he failed to show up for their prom date. And now that hes back in town, he wants to date her. Catherine refuses to go out with him but he keeps asking. Should she give Jake another chance? When it appears the high school janitor, Max, was murdered, Catherine is determined to learn the truth about his death. Catherines list of suspects for Maxs death include: the school secretary with her intense dislike of Max, the charismatic mayor, the mayors unbalanced girlfriend, the angry school principal, and a strange math teacher.
